Congratulations on your acceptance to UNC Charlotte!

On behalf of the University community, congratulations on your admission to UNC Charlotte! We are sure you are excited about beginning your career as a 49er. In order to make your time here the most rewarding, you should take advantage of the Student Orientation, Advising, and Registration (SOAR) Program. This program assists you with your transition to UNC Charlotte, and allows you to meet with an academic advisor and register for your fall semester classes. You will also learn important information about the university and all of the services in place to promote your success. SOAR is designed to prepare you for both your first semester and your subsequent years at UNC Charlotte. Your attendance assists you in making your time at UNC Charlotte a success.

Do not hesitate to contact the SOAR team if we can be of any assistance with the transition process.

Before you proceed with registration for orientation you need to activate your NinerNET account at pwnmanager.uncc.edu. If you need assistance logging into your NinerNET account, please call IT Service Desk at 704-687-5500, Option 2.
Payment deadlines are enforced. To avoid cancellation of your classes, review payment deadlines here.
